

2017-2018 Monthly Gatherings Scholarship Application

SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATIONS ARE DUE May 26, 2017, 5:00 pm

The Reggio-Inspired Network of Minnesota is excited to announce a yearlong scholarship which will sponsor an individual to participate in the Saturday gatherings for the 2017-2018 school year. Anyone with a deep curiosity about Reggio Emilia is encouraged to apply.

This scholarship, established by the Network's Board, is in honor of Sandy Burwell, a founding member of the Reggio-Inspired Network of Minnesota. Sandy has been particularly devoted to the Saturday Gatherings.

Please complete this application in full and return via email to Dan Morlock (daniel.morlock@isd623.org) or via fax to 651-646-7183

Applicant Name _____

Email _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Are you a student in early childhood education or school age and youth development? yes no
If so, which school do you attend?

Are you currently working in the early childhood or school age and youth development field? yes no
If so, which program do you work with? _____

How long have you worked in the field? _____

How long have you been exploring Reggio-Inspired practices? _____

In 250 words or less, please tell us about your journey in studying the infant toddler centers and preschools of Reggio Emilia. Please also address what you hope to achieve by attending the monthly gatherings (personally/professionally) and how you would use the information from the monthly gatherings to support your Reggio-Inspired practices.
(Attach a separate piece of paper or include in body of email)

I agree to write at least two reflections about the gatherings to be published in the Reggio Inspired Network of Minnesota quarterly newsletter.

Signature: _____ Date: _____